What can you expect from Clinical Pharmacy Congress North?

Clinical Pharmacy Congress North complements our London event, providing a second opportunity in the year for clinical pharmacy professionals to engage in invaluable learning and development:

- National Policy Updates: Receive insights from the national team, including the Deputy Chief Pharmaceutical Officer for England, on leadership, the evolving role of pharmacy technicians, infusions, special medicines, and independent prescribing.
- Clinical Education: Engage in essential learning on specialist topics, from service provision in emergency departments to long-term opioid usage, and the treatment of conditions such as cardiovascular disease and diabetes.
- Professional Development and Careers: Reflect on your career path and explore future opportunities within the dynamic clinical pharmacy landscape. Hear from peers who have made significant career advancements and uncover new ways to develop your own career.

- Sustainability: Learn from leaders in the profession who are pioneering innovative sustainability practices, including inhaler recycling and pill packaging solutions.
- Practical Skills: Participate in a range of hands-on training sessions to update and refresh your clinical and examination skills. We will host mini mock calculation exams with feedback, offering trainee pharmacists a chance to prepare for their qualifying exams.
- Networking: Connect with colleagues past and present and build new professional relationships in a supportive environment.
- Showcasing Innovation: The Poster Zone offers a platform to share your innovative work and success stories with peers, and serves as a stepping stone to presenting at future Clinical Pharmacy Congress events. Submit your abstract here
- Sourcing Suppliers: Discover the latest products and services curated for the pharmacy sector at our exhibition, designed to help decision-makers improve service provision, increase efficiencies, and support positive clinical outcomes.
- Adapting to Change: This event will be the first official pharmacy gathering since the recent general election, marking a time of change and new opportunities in the profession. Engage in discussions about the implications of new political developments on pharmacy practice and policy.

As a regional event, Clinical Pharmacy Congress North will also address specific issues faced by clinical pharmacy professionals in the northern UK.
